About The Wilson House

The Wilson House and nearby Griffith Library are the birthplace and childhood home of Bill Wilson, co-founder of Alcoholics Anonymous and author of the Twelve Steps. Since its beginning as a nonprofit organization in 1988, this special place has grown to be home for those in the fellowships of recovery. As Bill W. has had a profound impact on the lives of so many, The Wilson House seeks to carry on this work by offering a welcoming space for all to connect and nurture their journeys of recovery.
